BOOKTYPEWRITER

Editor Advertiser: It has been suggested by a member of the House that the introduction of the booktypewriter s a scheme to oust young men who are now doing work with a pen and to substitute for them young lady machine operators. It is highly probable that this may be the result but. of course, t is not the object of the bill. . If the young men lose their positions as a result of the introduction of the booktypewriter, it will be because they are incapable of doing as much work with the pen as can be done with the machine. It is on or about time for the easy-going methods of Hawaiian public offices to give place to the move and rapidity of mainland offices. To one accustomed to the strenuosity of the States, the large number of employes taking life easy in the public offices of Honolulu is a novelty, to say the least. If the booktypewriter brings about greater results for the salary paid and let us have the young lady. E. R. W. ing it, then, in the name of economy,

THE YELLOW LABOR PERIL ON COAST

Honolulu, Mar. 15, 1905. Editor Advertiser: The editorial in your paper of Mar. 14th, relating to Japanese emigration in to the States, I would like to extend to you my approval of it. As I have only left California a short time I think I am in a position to judge. At the present time, there is a terrible crisis in view for the United States. Not long ago in Fresno County, Cal., there was a parade composed of unemployed women, girls and children. At one time they were the employes on these raisin farms or vineyards. At the present time their places are filled by Japs. People that employ Japs were called by the paraders the most degrading names one ever heard. And that it did not end in blood shed is most surprising as well as gratifying. As your paper says, it is a grave crisis and should be taken in hand by our government officials, and Sun and moon are for losal time for that very soon. If not a terrible postion faces our great and grand country However, in regards to your view of the yellow journals that are printing matter pertaining to the question, must differ with you, as I do not consider the Chronicle a yellow journal. Hoping you will except this as an approval of your editorial.

I remain, A WORKING MAN.
